Data Protection.

The information you have provided, including personal data, will be primarily used for the purpose of enforcing the wine marketing and related regulations. They may be released to other wine sector enforcement authorities to facilitate investigations including suspected fraudulent treatment or risk to health. Details will be held in our computer system and may be used to compile the vineyard register, annual production declarations, surveys and reports and usually released only as unattributable information.

In limited circumstances, WSB may be required to release information, including personal data and commercial information, on request under the Code of Practice on Access to Government Information or the Freedom of Information Act 2000. However, WSB will not permit any unwarranted breach of confidentiality nor will we act in contravention of our obligations under the Data Protection Act 1998.

WSB may use the name, address and/or other details on this form to contact you in connection with a Visit Survey form to monitor the service we provide.
